We may transfer Personal Data to other Kraft Heinz group companies, partners, suppliers, law enforcement agencies and to other organisations that are located outside the EEA to assist us in processing Personal Data for the purposes described above in Section 4.

The laws of some jurisdictions outside the EEA may not be as protective as Data Protection Laws in the EEA. We will therefore keep Personal Data for as long as we reasonably consider we may need to in connection with those obligations.

Where we do not have keep Personal Data for a period specified by law we will not keep Personal Data for longer than Data Protection Law allows us to.

Where you have consented to us retaining your Personal Data to inform you about and consider you for other positions that may be appropriate for you as described above in Section 4, we will retain your Personal Data for twelve (12) months from when you provide your consent.

Where Kraft Heinz has asked for your consent to process Personal Data and that consent is withdrawn, we will not process that Personal Data further but may also not be able to continue providing the services for which the Personal Data was sought.

Where Kraft Heinz has a legal right or obligation to retain Personal Data or wishes to do so in connection with its legitimate interests, it may do so even if you have withdrawn consent for Kraft Heinz to hold your Personal Data.

Where Kraft Heinz requires Personal Data to comply with legal or contractual obligations, the provision of such data is mandatory. If such data is not provided Kraft Heinz will not be able to manage the employment or engagement relationship, or to meet obligations placed on it.
